DEDICATION

We the students of St. Joseph proudly dedicate the 1963 Viking to Bro. Herman Thaner, S.M. in remembrance of his golden jubilee as a Marianist Brother—Ad Multos Annos!!

Bro. Herman first made his vows in 1913. In his early years he taught chemistry, math, and German; in 1930 he was appointed as a school treasurer. In the summer of 1951 Bro. Herman left Cathedral Latin High School in Cleveland and became one of the first members of the faculty to open St. Joseph. From the first day he has dedicated himself to the office of school treasurer. Through his efficient and outstanding administrative abilities he has become one of the pillars of St. Joseph.

For the past fourteen years Bro. Herman's office has been the core of financial, administrative activities of St. Joseph. The weekly, monthly, and yearly gamut of fees, tuitions, bills, deficits, liabilities maintain the constant clicking, hammering, and humming of typewriters, adding machines, and filing cabinets. Like the school's patron, Bro. Herman, quietly labors, working a full day and often, like all good providers, into the early hours of the morning.

Accompanying his many duties is that of cafeteria management. His weekly visit to Mrs. M. Schmitt's office has insured one of the most nutritious and wholesome school cafeteria menus in the city.

The annual Fall Festival, one of the school's financial boosters, is Bro. Herman's specialty. Weeks of preparation with Mothers' and Dads' Clubs, supervising the construction and strategical placing of booths, plus the spirited backing of the students' chance book drive have enabled Bro. Herman to keep the books in the blue. During the festival itself Bro. Herman is always on hand enlivening the spirit and occasionally bagging a prize or two.

The St. Joseph Dads' Club owes its spirit and diligent organization to Bro. Herman, moderator. One facet is readily seen in the Sunday bowling tournaments among fathers, sons, and school faculty. Lively competition, awards, and trophies stimulate and engender not only school spirit but also a cordial family spirit. Bro. Herman is considered an old pro, bowling an average of 165.

St. Joseph High School is the largest school to be added to those under Marianist auspices. People well remember the large steel ball, a compression chamber, which formerly towered over a sanitorium hopefully built in 1928 by a Kansas City diabetes specialist. The institution known as Boulevard Hospital closed its doors in 1937. Four years later the property was bought by the diocese of Cleveland and a Retreat House was established. The steel ball disappeared in the scrap drive of World War II.

The land which makes up the high school property was donated to the diocese by the Beaumont Foundation headed by Nathan L. Dauby of the May Company. In April 1950, ground was broken for the school which is named as a memorial to the late Bishop Joseph Schrembs. Several sets of plans were made until it was decided to erect the present buildings to accommodate 1750 students. The direction of the school was given to the Society of Mary (Marianists) by Archbishop Hoban. The first principal—Reverend Louis Wiesner, four Brothers, and an athletic coach were the original faculty.

The pioneers at St. Joseph High School had the trying experiences usually associated with all beginnings. One hundred nineteen boys who made up the Freshman class began high school life with a three day retreat. Since the building was incomplete, classes were held in the three rooms of the Retreat House on the adjoining property, on the porch of the Sisters' house facing the lake, and in the parlor of the Brothers' own home. Early in November all classes moved to the first floor of the west wing of the new school. There was sufficient distraction from the two hundred men of the building trades, who were completing the building. Patience and good humor on all sides helped immensely. On March 14, 1951, the cornerstone was laid in a simple ceremony performed by the principal, witnessed by representatives of each class, and the workmen.

In the spring of 1951 the faculty house was begun east of the Neuberg Mansion which served as a temporary residence for the faculty. This building was ready for occupancy by Christmas 1952. The huge auditorium-gymnasium with a seating capacity for more than 3,000 has been in use since December 1953. The previous year saw the cafeteria in use with a capacity of 750.

Archbishop Hoban chose Memorial Day 1952 for the public dedication of the new St. Joseph High School. Many members of the hierarchy and religious were joined by 2,300 visitors at the Pontifical High Mass in the auditorium. His Excellency considered this "One of the finest dedications of any church or school we have had." In the following September the Industrial Arts building was ready for use. This contains eight classrooms with adjoining laboratories for auto mechanics, wood and electricity.

His Excellency Bishop Floyd L. Begin, a Cathedral Latin graduate of 1922, addressed the first group of 133 seniors at the graduation on May 30, 1954. Thus the Marianist tradition has been carried over from Cathedral Latin to St. Joseph High School. On August 15, 1956, St. Joseph's received its second principal, Reverend Aloysius Bedel, a former principal of Cathedral Latin, who served until June of 1959. On August 15, 1959, Bro. Stanley Mathews was appointed as St. Joseph's third principal.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

"Where do I take the A.C.T.?" . . . "I think I should have received a higher grade in Latin." . . . "How do I apply to college?" . . . These are a few problems discussed in the Guidance Office every day. But this has been heard ever since the Guidance Office began.

This year the Guidance Office receives a hearty—"Sure I'll work for a $1.15 an hour." And the Job Placement Office has thrust another Viking into the working world.

Besides this, student inventories, grade results, class standings, and test results are kept accessible to the student to help him decide what he will do in school and after graduation.

FACULTY

The backbone of any school, the pulsating nerve center of any institution involved in so great a task as that of—Molders of Men—is the faculty. St. Joseph prides itself with having one of the finest, most competent, and most professional faculties in the city. Its members letter from Bachelor to Doctor and range in experience from one to fifty years. The high professional spirit reigning in St. Joseph is evident from the Marianist Priests and Brothers working in amity with dedicated Catholic laymen.

SENIORS

Leaving these hallowed halls to help lift on high, continue to carry forward, and assume the responsibility of keeping lighted the TORCH of American Democracy and the Catholic Faith is the 1963 graduating class of St. Joseph High. It is hoped with these stanch graduates there goes into the world another segment of the Marianist Family. Loyalty is expected; perseverance is understood; fidelity to be forever a salient characteristic. May their hopes and endeavors culminate in the final Quest of life.

CLASSES

The hope of future Vikings and the light and salt of St. Joseph High rests in its underclassmen. Academic life still dominates the major part of their school activities. From them, it is hoped, our future American Catholic scholars and intellectuals will emanate. Spiritual and cultural germination must also age. The constant vigilance of the faculty and mutual cooperation from these students will insure a bountiful fruition. We are confident that they will carry on and strengthen the Viking tradition.

ACTIVITIES

Spiritual, social, and cultural development complements the tedious mental formation of all students. So important is the stress on solid spiritual maturity that the Marianist Sodality, annual school retreats, Knights of the Altar, and Mission Club are second to none in preference and performance. A true Viking's social finesse, polished etiquette, and cultural appreciation center around the various proms, school dances, spirited athletic rallies, Speech and Debate, National Honor Society, and the annual school musical and concert.

Bro. Bredestege meets with his Junor cell group

SODALITY

The main purposes behind the formation of a Marianist Sodality are the spiritual perfection of its members, total consecration to Mary, and the development of social responsibility.

This year's Sodality, which composed more than ten per cent of the student body, was directed by Fr. Raymond Kacirk, S.M. and coordinated by Bro. William Pilder, S.M.

The Sodalists held weekly meetings to discuss means of improving the spirituality of St. Joseph students and to help them realize their student vocation to the fullest.

New projects entered upon by the Sodality were a Council on Human Relations, the editing of a school Sodality paper—The Torch, and the participation in a new province magazine—The Journeyman.

In the past year some Sodality members also began teaching Confraternity Classes in neighboring parishes and during the past summer some Sodalists spent five weeks as lay missionaries in Virginia.

RETREATS

Fr. Charles Lees delivers an inspiring talk

This year the Seniors again had the opportunity of making a closed retreat at the Diocesan Retreat House. In addition some Seniors had the privilege of going to Dayton for their Retreat.

In order to give the Seniors a better atmosphere for the retreat, all Seniors at the Retreat House were given private rooms and were required to wear suits.

The Senior Retreat Masters were Fr. Karl Wilhelm, S.M., Fr. Nelson Cunningham and Fr. Edgar Bedard, S.S.S.

The retreats for the underclassmen were held at school as usual. Fr. William Behrenger, S.M. was the Freshman Retreat Master and Fr. Charles Lees was the Retreat Master for the Juniors and Sophomores.

KNIGHTS OF THE ALTAR

The K. of A. officers prepare the weekly serving assignments

St. Joseph's Knights of the Altar assist the Marianist Priests at all the school's spiritual functions throughout the entire year—from the opening Mass in September to the graduation ceremonies in June. Their chief activities are supplying servers for daily Mass, benedictions, retreats, and First Fridays.

This year's officers are: Floyd Griffin, Pres., Tim Pearson, Vice-Pres., Jim Huber, Sec., and Jim Juknialis, Treas. Fr. Bergedick, S.M., is the moderator.

This year's student sacristans, Jim Kuhel and John Caywood, were two quiet men whose job was to lay out vestments and prepare the altar.

ROSARY RALLY

In honor of the feast of the Most Holy Rosary, the entire student body participated in the annual October Rosary Rally. Led by Bill Dimigard, head of the religious committee, the members of the Student Council and school activities leaders formed a living rosary. Each participant recited a small quotation from Scripture, in addition to the recitation of his bead in the five decades.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In giving the student body the paramount of well-rounded activity, the Student Council, under its moderator Bro. Philip T. Aaron, S.M., may be commended for the fine job and accomplishments that it has completed. The many dances and mixers, the student loan, the rallies, the assemblies and other events which the Student Council fostered have all greatly influenced the life of each student.

The decisions of the students at each Tuesday Council meeting have prompted such important decisions as voting procedures, disciplinary problems, free days, and regulations concerning the Student Body.

New innovations of this year's more lively Council included the Ways and Means, and the Assemblies Committees and the refinement of its existing organizations.

The Committee System of the Student Council has proved itself to be the backbone of activity at St. Joseph. Combining talented leadership with true efficiency, each committee chairman has refined and made better his committee. New ideas that grew from the seeds of revision have been the "Best Dressed Homeroom Contest," more and better dances, a well run Homecoming program, and outdoor rallies.

Organization of the 1962-63 Viking Band took place in the late summer months at band camp. Led by Band Director, Mr. Norman Novak, and Drum Major, Ray Zalokar, the Viking Band marched its way to success by providing some of the most colorful halftime shows ever witnessed by Viking rooters.

After the football season they continued their musical mastery by partaking in the Press Christmas Parade and the Christmas Concert. During Catholic Schools Week, Oct. 12 to Oct. 21, the Vikings had the privilege of playing at the Public Square, Downtown Cleveland. Other activities around the school in which the band participated were: playing at the Homecoming Dance and playing for this years play, The Music Man.

Without the work of its moderator, Bro. Gerard Dwyer, S.M., the Viking Band would not have had such a successful year.

GLEE CLUB

This year's Glee Club went under a change when its moderator Bro. Philip T. Aaron, S.M. was replaced by Bro. Lester Leach, S.M. Anyone walking down the second floor hall during homeroom period has heard the melodious tunes such as Oklahoma or Ave Maria rising from the voices of 55 men that constitute the Glee Club. This renowned club has displayed its great talent to the student body in various assemblies throughout the year and also to the public with its fine Christmas and Spring concerts. Although the club started the year lacking the built-up coordination between upperclassmen and moderator, its success has made a lasting impression on all those concerned with the organization.

The tedious task of putting out a yearbook requires a vast expenditure of time and effort. It demands the ultimate of co-operation of both the entire student body and the faculty. The underlying theme the staff presents is the Patron Saint of the school, St. Joseph. The very efficient 1963 staff was lead by Tim Pearson. Without the help, however, of the loyal staff and patron boosters the final product could never have been attained. Moderators were Bro. Kunesh, S.M. and Bro. Parete, S.M.

NORSEMAN

In presenting the scholastic news and events at St. Joseph, the school newspaper, the Norseman, has done a fine job. It fields topics in news, editorials, sports, and features. The future journalists find that it takes devotion, many hours of intense work, and many tribulations to be on the school staff.

Some projects that were undertaken by editor Ken Herman and his ambitious staff were the coverage of the Student Council Elections and the many issues of the regular Norseman which they produced.

St. Joseph's Fr. Initiating its first four members as sophomores in 1960 the senior membership has grown to 25. Requirements for the nationwide honorary society include the attributes of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club is an outstanding science organization of St. Joseph High. Its main objective is to obtain amateur and commercial radio licenses and achieve skill in operating radio station equipment. This year the Radio Club made its move to the top, that is, from the second to the third floor in the building. The greatest goal achieved this year was the actual standing up of the fifty-foot tower presently being used in Project Moon Bounce.

Stickers, pom-poms, pennants, spirit hats, organized cheering sections are but a few gimmicks employed by the Boosters to keep the SPIRITS HIGH.

SERVICE CLUB

Bro. Donald McCoy's Service Club deserves special mention for its outstanding and efficient work in the school. Its members, often the unsung heroes of many school activities, are on the job hours before and after dances, games, socials, arranging and organizing chairs, concession stands. After successful events the Service Club remains late into the night cleaning and preparing things for school use.

The St. Joseph Dads' Club, Bro. Herman Thaner, S.M. moderator, shoulders the primary financial thrust of the school year by sponsoring the annual Fall Festival. It keeps its fingers on a healthy social relationship among the faculty, fathers, and sons with the annual Faculty & Fathers Picnic and the Sunday Bowling League. Spiritual robustness is nurtured and sustained by the Father and Son Communion Breakfast.

Joseph Streiff, S.M., moderator has organizational meetings with the Moms' Club once a month.

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle Club has had one of its finest seasons under the direction of its moderator, Mr. Norbert H. Ruffing. Although they do not receive the same recognition of other school teams, they still do their part in bringing honor to the halls of St. Joseph High. One of the outstanding records set this year was a score of 89 in the kneeling position by senior Paul Kubala.

CARPENTER STAFF

Although last year's Carpenter was one of the best issues ever put out by St. Joseph's, this year's staff, under the direction of Mr. R. J. Jasany, was working overtime to produce a copy of equal quality. Each of the staff members was given a stack of papers, written by the students in the school, to read and comment on as they pleased. Richard McGee, Gilbert Feke, John Velbeck, and James Gorman were the editors of the Carpenter.

MUSICAL

The dramatic and musical talents of the students of St. Joseph and local girl's academies were truly manifested in the production of the Music Man. The crowd, awed by the colorful scenery, could do nothing but compliment the performance of Ron Ackerman as male lead and Virginia Eimutus of Regina in the female spotlight. Of great importance and with equal proficiency were the supporting roles, boasting such fine showpeople as Mike Hommel, Carol Mullin, Ed Moser, Jim Kelley, Mary Kate Stephens, Bill Laufer, and Margaret Sanders. The three months of practice put into the play benefited the participants in many ways. The night of the performance, behind make-up and costumes, each of the actors felt the fruits of his labors.

A 36-8 Homecoming Game victory over Chanel was highlighted by the crowning of the Queen at half-time. The culmination of activity was centered at the Homecoming Dance where 330 couples enjoyed the finest and classiest dance. Chairmen for the activities were Mike Spehar, Mike Hommel, and Bob Bush.

SPORTS

Striving to develop the spiritual, social, and cultural, St. Joseph also aims at the emotional and physical—Sound Mind and Sound Body! The sculpturing of true manhood and character, coordination and sportsmanship, often occur on the gridiron and court, the greens and track. The Viking gridironers, linksters, cindermen, roundballers, and grapplers strive to set the school pace. FOOTBALL

A school long reveres a certain graduating class for one of two reasons: scholastic or athletic achievement. St. Joseph will long hold the Class of 1963 in high esteem for the latter reason because of the outstanding record compiled by the '62 Football team. With an overall record of 9 wins and only 1 loss, the Vikings of the gridiron rank as the most successful team in the history of football at St. Joseph High School.

In past years, having been recognized as a football power even before the kickoff of the first game, St. Joseph has not only been required to play the opposing team, but also to live up to the tremendous reputation of former Viking squads. The '62 Viking Football team accomplished not only this but much more. They reduced all opposing forces to a state of docility except one, a team virtually unknown to the Cleveland area, but far more powerful than the vast majority of St. Joseph's usual rivalries.

Under the able guidance of Head Coach Mr. Bill Gutbrod and Ass't Coaches Mr. Thomas Hoffart and Mr. Bernard Guilfoyle, the individual members of the squad developed into one unit, dedicated to the honor of St. Joseph High. Singular stars are not lacking though, for two members, Steve Troychak and Tom Schoen, were included into the 1962 Cleveland All Catholic team, an honor not bestowed without much hard work. Rounding out the backfield with Schoen are halfbacks Dave Herrick, Dan Peck and fullback Frank Starman, all known for their running ability, especially Herrick, who was named the Most Valuable Player at the Annual Football Banquet. Other awards included Best Lineman to Steve Troychak; Most Improved to Dick Lutsch and Leadership to Larry Meyer, a man not widely known for scoring points, but, nevertheless, a most important player. St. Joseph also received the benefits of two able ends, Tony Zalokar and Bill Platis, a rugged pair on both offense and defense. Another "man behind the scenes" is Jack Shea, who, along with Meyer, succeeded in downing the hopes of any opposing back fortunate enough to come that far.

Season highlights included three straight shutouts against Cathedral Latin, St. Edward and Wickliffe, 28-0, 36-0 and 6-0; four games in which the opposing team was held to only a single touchdown, Cleveland Heights 28-6, Collinwood 36-6, Chanel 36-8 and Rochester Aquinas 20-6, and a come-from-behind victory against spirited Euclid, undoubtedly St. Joseph's toughest annual rivalry. As a result of this last game the "Axe" returned to the halls of St. Joseph after being absent for two years.

The only blemish on an otherwise perfect record is a loss to Erie Cathedral Prep, a Pennsylvania school considered formidable in its own area. The Vikings trailed the entire game due to the powerful running attack and pinpoint passing of Erie.

BASKETBALL

St. Joseph High School, widely known for producing excellent basketball teams, continued the tradition through the 1962-63 season with a squad of scrappy never-say-die roundballers. The total record was not as impressive as in former years, but the underlying qualities and results were present-if not in a greater degree than ever before.

Under the veteran coaching of Mr. Bernie Guilfoyle and ably led by co-captains Gary Fink and Tony Zalokar, St. Joseph enjoyed the pleasure of defeating a quantity of exuberant teams who were under the impression that St. Joseph was having an "off" year. Instead of appeasing the wounds of defeat from past contests, they were once again shown to be the "class" of Vikings in spite of all odds. Many of the Vikings' usual fierce rivalries enjoyed strong years on the court and boasted of so-called "decisive" victories; only one team sent the Viking cagers to the showers without first facing the same fate until the closing minutes of the game, and this team rated high in the state.

Concluding the season with an overall record of 12 wins and 9 losses, St. Joseph lost seven games by less than ten points. In the beginning four games of the season the Vikings brought home only one victory against Collinwood 64-59; losses were to Admiral King, Akron Central and highly talented Chanel. The teams bounced back with four straight against Wickliffe 63-52, St. Edward 70-44, Akron East 44-42 in overtime and Collinwood 44-35. Of the remaining ten games St. Joseph won exactly half: victories over Pittsburgh North Catholic 82-62, Our Lady of Lourdes 89-59, St. Edward 102-43, Eastlake North 66-56 and Geneva 40-33. Losses were to Euclid by four points, Latin by four points, Chanel by one point in overtime, Cleveland Heights by four points and East.

On the tournament trail the Vikings racked up two decisive victories against Mentor and Wickliffe, both of whom had high intentions of humiliating St. Joe.

Individual stars include; forwards George Coghill and Brian Stenger; center Tony Zalokar; guards Gary Fink, Len Kedys, and Tom Schoen. Against St. Edward Tony set a new school record of 38 points while the team combined for 102 total points.

WRESTLING

The Viking wrestling team of 1962-63 will not be publicized as an outstanding constantly victorious squad, but certain achievements will be noted as meritorious. In total points recorded for the entire season, St. Joseph outscored their opponents by a sizable margin in spite of an unimpressive record. Also the Vikings are credited with a shutout, 39-0, over Wickliffe, an almost unheard of feat in wrestling annals.

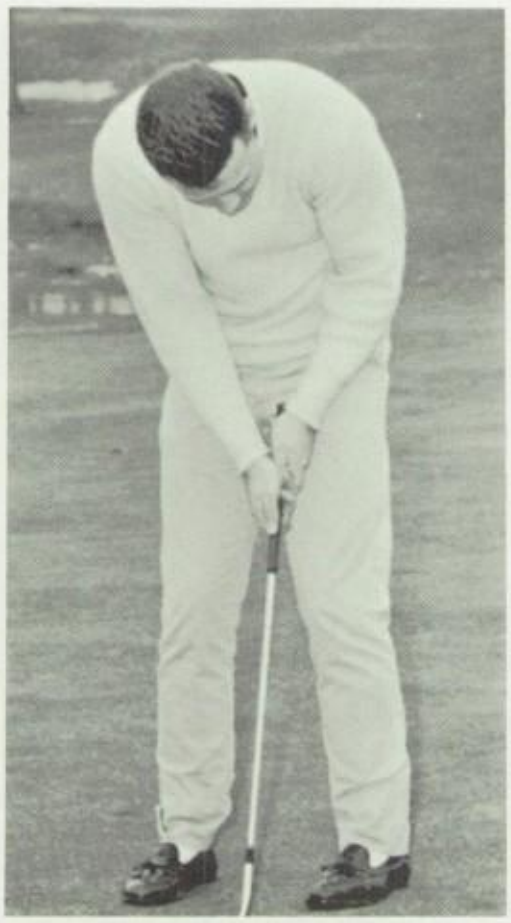
TENNIS

Although a relatively new sport at St. Joseph, tennis has survived tough schedules of seasoned opponents to emerge with a highly respectable record. The squad for '63 has high hopes for an exceptional season.

BOWLING

Kepic and Baker anticipate another victory for the Viking keglers at Euclid Lanes.

At the end of every school year at St. Joseph, another page of tradition is written, and, without failure, the Viking Bowling Team is included for their achievements. Under the guidance of Bro. Gilbert Gensler, S.M., the 1962-63 Viking keglers have been, are, and will be recognized as outstanding.



GOLF

For the past two years the Viking linksters have captured the title in the Cleveland Catholic Golf Conference, a league containing almost every top Catholic high school in the Cleveland area. With the entire team of last year returning to attempt to retain the crown, St. Joseph will, in all probability, possess several more trophies at the close of the '63 season.

CHEERLEADERS

Almost any athletic contest consists of three main segments: the team, the spectators, and the cheerleaders. The first two groups outnumber the latter by a vast majority and receive praise in about the same proportion. By far, the most highly underrated organization at St. Joseph's was this year's cheerleaders, led by Mike Coyne.
